Demartek Presents at SNIA Storage Developer Conference in September

We all know about ENERGY STAR labels on refrigerators and other household appliances. In an effort to drive energy efficiency in datacenters, the EPA announced its ENERGY STAR Data Center Storage program in late 2013 that allow storage systems to get ENERGY STAR labels. Dennis Martin will be discussing this new program in depth as well as discussing why it matter to you, your datacenter and your business.

Word from the President

Summer is winding down, but things are heating up in the Demartek lab. We keep those flash arrays in our lab quite busy, and more are on the way. New server technologies will soon be announced, and we expect to report on more new technologies between now and the end of the year. We also have some interesting videos planned for the near future so stay up to date by subscribing to the Demartek YouTube channel.
