Demartek Evaluation of HP 3PAR StoreServ 7450 8GFC Express Writes

There are cases where upgrading storage targets or other SAN infrastructures isn't feasible. For these situations, HP has developed 8Gb Express Writes, a technology which accelerates write I/O to the HP 3PAR StoreServ array. To get all the details on how to enhance the performance of your HP 3PAR StoreServ array, read our latest report.

The banner features the Flash Memory Summit logo on the left, the date 'AUGUST 11' in large white text on a dark background, the location 'SANTA CLARA, CALIFORNIA' below it, the Demartek logo and name on the right, and the text 'REAL-WORLD PERFORMANCE OF FLASH-BASED STORAGE SYSTEMS' and '4:35PM - 5:45PM' below. A red box on the far right says 'DON'T MISS THIS!'.

Dennis Martin, President of Demartek, will present at the Flash Memory Summit in Santa Clara, CA at the end of the summer. This event is for anyone using, buying, planning, developing, selling or marketing flash-based storage products and needs to understand their performance under real-world conditions. This year's presentation will contain new performance data not seen elsewhere. Details of Dennis's session:

Word from the President

Although we love to discuss new technology, the recent "Express Writes" report above shows that technology can be improved even with existing technology, such as 8 Gb Fibre Channel. We demonstrated latency improvements of up to 50%!

I look forward to sharing new examples of real-world workloads using flash storage at the tenth anniversary of the Flash Memory Summit this August. If you have technology or workload that you would like to see highlighted in my presentation, be sure to contact me.

We invite you to join us giving back to the community by sponsoring TEAM DEMARTEK in Jodi's Ovarian Cancer Run in June. It will be a great event for a great cause!
